Day 1 (20 September)

9.00–9.30 Arrival and Welcome

9.30–11.00 Keynote address: Knowing My Place
Sarah Fine
(King's College London)

11.00–11.30 Break

11.30–12.15 Two Roles of Partiality: Both Explained, Justified, and Outweighed by Impartiality
Aart van Gils
(University of Reading)

12.15–13.00 Immigration Ethics, Compatriot Partiality and Associative Duties
Elaine Lok-Lam Yim
(The University of Hong Kong)

13.00–14.00 Lunch break

14.00–14.45 Socially Constructed Luck
Nicola Mulkeen
(University of Manchester)

14.45–15.30 Injustice, Excuse and Laundry
Rowan Mellor
(University College London)

15.30–16.00 Break

16.00–16.45 Should We Judge Public Officials Morally?
Viktor Ivanković
(Central European University)

Dr. Marius Baumann
(Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität Munich)
Day 2 (21 September)

9.30–10.15  A case for the asymmetric enforceability of surrogacy contracts
Maria-Jose Pietrini-Sanchez
The University of Sheffield

10.15–11.00  Exceeding the boundaries of morality. Varieties of moralism and their corrective virtues
Maria Silvia Vaccarezza
University of Genova

11.00–11.30  Break

11.30–12.15  Should Infringers Pay Compensation?
Lisa Hecht
Stockholm University

12.15–13.00  Risk and Blameworthiness by Degree
Adriana Placani
University of Graz

13.00–14.00  Lunch break

14.00–14.45  A Civic Argument for Epistemic Constraints on Voting
Michele Giavazzi
University of Warwick

14.45–15.15  Autonomy and the value of democracy
Zsolt Kapelner
Central European University