2ND POLEMO SYMPOSIUM
Programme

20-21 September 2019
Central European University
Budapest, Hungary

Location: Gellner room, Budapest, Nádor u. 9, 1051

Day 1 (20 September)

9.00–9.30 Arrival and Welcome

9.30–11.00 Keynote address: Knowing My Place
Sarah Fine
(King's College London)

11.00–11.30 Break

11.30–12.15 Immigration Ethics, Compatriot Partiality and Associative Duties
Elaine Lok-Lam Yim
(The University of Hong Kong)

12.15–13.00 The problem of Indeterminacy and Refugee Protection
Georgiana Turculet
(University of Copenhagen)

13.00–14.00 Lunch break

14.00–14.45 Injustice, Excuse and Laundry
Rowan Mellor
(University College London)

14.45–15.30 Should We Judge Public Officials Morally?
Viktor Ivanković
(Central European University)

15.30–16.00 Break

16.00–16.45 Punching Down: A Matter of Morals, not Humour
Dr. Marius Baumann
(Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität Munich)
Day 2 (21 September)

9.30–10.15  A case for the asymmetric enforceability of surrogacy contracts
Maria-Jose Pietrini-Sanchez
The University of Sheffield

10.15–11.00  A Defense of the Narrow Conception of Deliberation
Toni Milevoj
Central European University

11.00–11.30  Break

11.30–12.15  Should Infringers Pay Compensation?
Lisa Hecht
Stockholm University

12.15–13.00  Risk and Blameworthiness by Degree
Adriana Placani
University of Graz

13.00–14.00  Lunch break

14.00–14.45  A Civic Argument for Epistemic Constraints on Voting
Michele Giavazzi
University of Warwick

14.45–15.15  Autonomy and the value of democracy
Zsolt Kapelner
Central European University