

MILOŠ RESIMIĆ

E-mail: resimic.milos@gmail.com

Phone number: +36 30 136 4098

EDUCATION

---

PhD in Political Science, Central European University

Dissertation title: “Network ties and the politics of renationalization: Embeddedness, political-business relations and renationalization in post-Milosevic Serbia“

Grade: Summa cum laude

2014 - 2019

MA in Political Science, Central European University

2013 - 2014

MA in Political Sociology, Faculty of Political Sciences,
University of Belgrade

2009 - 2011

BA in Journalism and Communication, Faculty of Political Sciences,
University of Belgrade

2005 - 2009

WORK EXPERIENCE

---

Eötvös Loránd University (ELTE), Budapest Hungary

Position: Visiting Professor

2021-

Transparency International, Anti-Corruption Helpdesk, Berlin, Germany

Position: Consultant

2021-

International Center for the Study of Institutions and Development (ICSID)

National Research University Higher School of Economics, Russian Federation

Position: Postdoctoral Research Fellow

2020-2021

Government Transparency Institute (GTI), Hungary

Position: Consultant for “State capture and defense procurement in the EU”
project, in charge of the case study of the UK

February - July 2019

Duties:

- Document analysis in the field of defense procurement in the UK
- Fieldwork: Interviews with key players and experts in the defense sector
- Delivery of the report on the findings
- Contribution to the organization of workshops for dissemination of results

Vera & Donald Blinken Open Society Archives (OSA), Hungary

Position: Assistant Archivist for the Yugoslav Archive Project

June 2016 - July 2017

Duties:

- Collecting and evaluating structured information from predefined archival collections
- Selecting and digitizing documents
- Working on possible ways for data visualization using network science visualization tools

Ministry of Labor, Employment and Social Policy, Serbia

Position: Consultant for devising the National Action Plan for the implementation of the National Strategy for Prevention and

Elimination of Violence against Women

June 2012 - September 2012

Duties:

- Comprehensive analysis of the existing normative framework regarding violence against women
- Consultation process with institutions and organizations which are providing services for victims of violence
- Public presentation of the National Action Plan

PEER REVIEWED PUBLICATIONS, ANALYSES AND WORKING PAPERS

---

- Resimic, M. (2021). Institutional arrangements for whistleblowers: Challenges and best practices. Transparency International, Anti-Corruption Helpdesk. <https://knowledgehub.transparency.org/helpdesk/institutional-arrangements-for-whistleblowing-challenges-and-best-practices>.
- Resimic, M. (2021). Limiting the right to protest: Comparing restrictions in the G7, Russia and China. Transparency International, Anti-Corruption Helpdesk. <https://knowledgehub.transparency.org/helpdesk/limiting-the-right-to-protest-comparing-restrictions-in-the-g7-russia-and-china>.
- Resimic, M. (forthcoming). Capture me if you can: The road to political colonization of business in post-Milosevic Serbia. Europe-Asia Studies.
- Resimic, M. (2021). Network ties and the politics of renationalization: Embeddedness, political-business relations and renationalization in post-Milosevic Serbia. Comparative Political Studies, 54(1): 179-209.
- Resimic, M. (2019). Public-private relationships in defense procurement in the EU: The case of the UK. working paper. Government Transparency Institute.
- Resimic, Milos 2016. Media coverage of violence against women in the family and in an intimate partner relationship in Serbia, Temida, 19(1): 63-82.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

---

CEU Global Teaching Fellow at Eotvos Lorand University, Hungary

Position: Teaching Fellow

Duties: Teaching a course “Analyzing state capture in post-communist countries and beyond”

September 2019 - January 2020

ECPR Summer School in Methods and Techniques, Central European University

Position: Teaching Assistant for Social network analysis and visualization with R

August 5-9, 2019

ECPR Summer School in Methods and Techniques, Central European University

Position: Teaching Assistant for Theoretically informed network analysis for social scientists

July 31, 2017 - August 4, 2017

Central European University

Position: Teaching Assistant for Political Economy II

January 2016 - April 2016

FELLOWSHIPS, AWARDS AND GRANTS

---

Outstanding dissertation award by the Doctoral School of Political Science,

Public Policy and International Relations, Central European

University

June 2019

Central European University Doctoral Write-Up Grant

September 2018 - February 2019

CEU-IWM Junior Visiting Fellowship at the Institute for

Human Sciences, Vienna, Austria

February 2018 - June 2018

Central European University Doctoral Research Support

Grant to University of California, Santa Cruz,

Politics Department

October 2017 – December 2017

Central European University doctoral fellowship

in political science

2014 - 2017

Fellowship of the Fund for Young Talents of the Republic of Serbia

2014

Central European University, Political Science Department's

Award for Academic Excellence

2014

LANGUAGES

---

- Serbian/Croatian/Bosnian - native
- English - fluent (speaking, writing, reading)
- Hungarian - beginner

PROFESSIONAL SKILLS

---

- MS Office
- Social network analysis software (Gephi, UCINET)
- R statistical software (data import, transformation and visualization, regressions, advanced data visualizations, social network analysis)
- Nvivo (coding qualitative data (interviews, media sources))

MEDIA APPEARANCE

---

- Balkan Insight, 2019. "Serbia's Anti-Govt Protests Leave Tweeters Bitterly Divided", available at: <https://balkaninsight.com/2019/03/21/serbias-anti-govt-protests-leave-tweeters-bitterly-divided/>.

- Observatory of Social Innovations, 2019. „Tviter kao ostrvo slobode u zarobljenoj državi: Dinamika protesta #1od5miliona“ [Twitter as an island of freedom in a captured state: The dynamic of #1of5million protest]. Available in Serbian at: <https://odi.rs/tviter-kao-ostrvo-slobode-u-zarobljenoj-drzavi-dinamika-protesta-1od5miliona/>.